

- b) Cllr Matt Brereton was not in attendance but had sent his apologies. He is meeting with Peter Hosking next week and also with the Community Manager.
- c) Community Led Plan – Broughton Post Office is keeping its “stay as is” status until March 2018 following letters written by Community Led Plan Steering Group. MP John Woodcock visited the Post Office on 13 May and Diane Bath explained to him the difficulties of keeping a rural Post Office viable.
Signage outside the school (20 when lights show) were installed a fortnight ago.
Highways say that refreshing of road markings is “on ticket” along with other items agreed and apologize for the delay.
Parish Clerk has been given a cheque for £1000 towards the new door on the Victory Hall. The funding is a CCC’s Community Grant which has come via Broughton Community Plan.
- d) Public – No concerns from the public.

115/17 Victory Hall

Cllr Knowles advised that following the Victory Hall AGM, the committee is the same as last year and there was only 1 member of the public at the AGM.
The new door has been put on the Victory Hall and they are looking for a solution to having the door open without having to wedge it open. Various repairs internally are going to be done and the roof will need attention this year. The library part needs some plastering work Done. Some volunteers from the Drama group are going to paint and more volunteers will be sought.
